Even the cows were interested in our Lezant Horticultural Show! Photo with permission by Jayne Lewis

Dear Friends

As I am writing this the day is cloudy but very clear and we have been promised some good weather for the next week so let us hope that this does transpire as we have been short of sunshine and warmth this summer. The rain has done amazing things to our plants and shrubs though—they have never grown or spread as much as this year!

However, the lack of sunshine didn't bother us for the Lezant Horticultural Society Annual Show on 10th August. Jo has written a report on page 25 which endorses the fact that it was a lovely afternoon and much enjoyed by all who came along. It's always an excellent parish event and so good to see people from around and about supporting the show by entering the classes and just generally having a good time.

The Parish has some exciting events to look forward to this month. The Autumn Lecture makes a welcome return on 17th October (see page 23) and there is news of the Methodist Church Angel Festival in Advent (also page 23). Jackie Warren, of Lezant is hosting a MacMillan Coffee Morning on 5th October at Lezant Church Room and I know she is hoping for support from many of you. October is also the beginning of autumn when the trees all around show their wonderful colours, we have harvest festivals and the morning air reminds us that it's the season of mists and mellow fruitfulness.

It's always good to receive contributions from residents of the parish and this month we have an intriguing story of the bottle in the wall from Graham and Gail of Trekelland Farmhouse. Graham hinted that there is more to come so we will look forward to receiving it.

Enjoy October!
Jill

LUNCH CLUB

Twenty six members of the Lezant Lunch Club were welcomed by Ken Scoble at Trebulet Hall on Wednesday 31st July. They enjoyed a delicious meal of chicken, pancetta and mushroom casserole served with roast potatoes, peas and carrots, followed by a lemon dessert. A vegetarian alternative was available. The main course was prepared by John and Emma Morley. The dessert was made by Ros Davey. Service was provided by Irene and Helen Nash, Ann Foster, Cynthia Jewell, Helen Judge and Janet Docherty. During coffee members were entertained by a food themed quiz.

Twenty-seven members of the Lezant Lunch Club attended Trebulet Hall on Wednesday 28th August for a tasty lasagne, served with cabbage, peas and carrots. This was followed by fruit crumble and custard. A vegetarian alternative of homity pie was made by Mary Synott. The main course was prepared by Ruth Burden and Irene Nash. The dessert was made by Julie Dinnis. Additional assistance was provided by Janet Lyle, Mary Bridger and Helen Judge. Entertainment in the form of a musical quiz was presented by Angela Morrison.

The Lezant Lunch Club meets on the last Wednesday of each month.

The next lunch will take place on Wednesday 30th October at 12.30 at Trebulet Hall. The cost is just £5 for two courses plus coffee. Please phone Ruth Burden on 01566 782286 to book a place.

LEZANT PARISH ARCHIVE GROUP

The next meeting of The Lezant Parish Archive Group will be at Trebulet Hall on Wednesday 13th November, at 11.00. Tea and coffee will be provided and we ask for a contribution of £2 each to help with expenses.

The Group is planning a visit to Kresen Kernow, the Cornwall archive repository in Redruth, early next year. They hold all sorts of old documents (their online search facility brings up 753 for Lezant alone) which you can go and see (free) and photograph (for a fee) – but you have to order them by email so they're ready when you arrive. This is the plan:

1. In the next month or so, please
 - a. Look at the website (<https://kresenkernow.org/>) and you'll see what they're offering. Have a search around and see if there's anything you'd like to order up (you can create and print a list on the website), or if you'd just like to come along anyway. Then, if you want to join us,
 - b. Make a list of dates in January, February and March when you can and when you can't go. The journey will be about an hour each way and we aim to arrive at about 1100 and leave at about 1500, though that's negotiable at our November meeting.
2. Come to the meeting armed with your list and your dates. And we will hold a Dutch auction, decide the best date and times, check for duplicates on your lists and arrange car-sharing or other modes of transport.

TREBURLEY SOCIAL CLUB DATES FOR OCTOBER 2024

Saturday 19th	Entertainment with Johnny M. Members £3, non-members £3.50. 8pm start
Saturday 26th	Quiz.. Maureen Piper will be setting the questions. £1.50 per person. No more than 4 people to a team, please. 8pm start
Wednesday 30th	Bingo Evening—Eyes down at 8pm

Save the date: We will be holding our annual Christmas Market on Saturday 30th November.

Trekelland Farmhouse

The curious matter of the Bottle in the Wall

Cornwall has always been a county of ancient tradition and superstition. Sadly, the origins of many of these have been lost in the mists of time. One of these traditions, which is still sometimes evident today, was the tradition of warding off and protection from evil spirits and witches from the home.

Trekelland Farmhouse, which was built in the late 15th century, is located near the small hamlet of Little Comfort. It is one such building, which has through the course of its most recent renovation over the past three years, provided a remarkable wealth of evidence of past owners' attempts to protect their home and land from the effects of witchcraft and sorcery (such as the attempt to protect from ongoing illness within the family or protection against the possibility of failed harvests). So far, the discovery of certain occult marks on walls and ancient wooden beams have been uncovered. These marks will be described in a future article. The focus of this article will be 'the curious matter of the bottle in the wall'.

More recent evidence of 'witch protection' came to light a few weeks ago when Mr. Matthew Basire called in to see the completion of the most recent phase of renovation work on the farmhouse. Matthew was brought up in the farmhouse, from which his family ran a successful dairy farming business for many years. Prior to Matthew's father buying the farm in 1966, it was owned for many generations by the well-known Budge family.

The occasion was Matthew's first visit to the farmhouse since it was acquired by us approximately three years ago. Matthew still lives nearby and continues the family tradition of cattle farming. Whilst viewing the renovation work he asked "have you found the bottle in the wall yet?" At that state we had no knowledge of it. He then pointed to a stone wall next to an ancient wooden door. There before us, part buried in the wall, was the outline of a small bottle. It was most certainly there but we hadn't noticed it in the three years of our occupation. Matthew made a very valid point "Why would you?" Quite, who would expect to see a bottle deliberately half buried in a stone wall next to the large granite inglenook fireplace.

The bottle had been painted over with thick layers of limewash, which had built up over time. Matthew told us he remembers first seeing it as a little boy but did not know its purpose,

After undertaking research on these strange phenomena, an interesting picture began to emerge. Our research indicated that quite a few bottles have been found embedded in walls of ancient buildings. The earliest known reference was in a letter between two friends dated 1579. In that letter, the writer refers to an old woman near Norwich who he had visited and who, it was claimed, had been

Trebullett Play Area - Polite Notice

Councillors would like to remind residents that the bin at Trebullett play area is not suitable for putting dog waste bags in - as the bin is not emptied on a regular basis and is not one registered for collection by Cornwall Council Waste Services. Please dispose of your dog's waste elsewhere. Thank you.

And from the editorial team at the request of residents:

There has been an increase in the amount of dog poo being left on the roads in the parish. We know that most of the residents with dogs are extremely careful to pick up, bag and take home their dogs' faeces but there are obviously some who don't.

Please be aware that it's an offence not to pick up after your dog and, if reported, can meet with a hefty fine. And please take the poo bag home with you or put it in one of the dog waste bins around the parish – please don't throw it in the hedge-row! You may find this link helpful if you see someone not picking up after their dog. <https://www.cornwall.gov.uk/environment/animal-welfare-and-enforcement/dog-fouling/>

“struck down by the power of witches”. Her dutiful husband found a bottle and filled it with locks of her hair, pins and a secret potion which would help protect her from the curse. Stones were removed from the fireplace and the bottle was partly buried in the wall. It seems it was important that the contents of the bottle were visible, in case the witch should ever return.

Other examples of buried bottles were placed to try to counter the effects of a curse which the farmer believed had been placed on their livestock by a witch or wizard.

We decided to very carefully clean the side of the bottle of its coats of limewash and slowly uncovered what appeared to be its contents. There was a wooden stopper at one end to ensure that the contents remained within the bottle. The bottle was slightly green in colour and its contents seemed to be black hair, pins and a dried-up cream coloured liquid.

Our research on other ‘bottles in walls’ was written by academics, most of whom seem to suggest that the bottle should be left where it was buried, in recognition of local folklore. One academic suggested that it was not “wise to move it”. In the interests of local folklore and ‘superstition’ we have decided to leave it where it is.

John Milne Home 5th September 1939 to June 2024

John and Veryan were both well known and well loved residents of the parish and did much to serve the community in the time they lived here. We will remember John with fondness.. These words are from Veryan.

John was born into a Naval family in 1939. In the 1950s his family bought a house in the Borders of Scotland and John went to school in Perthshire where he excelled at games and gym. At 19 he joined the Royal Marines and saw Service in Malta, the Middle East, Borneo and Singapore followed by five years serving with the Army on and around Salisbury Plain. On retirement he gained a Diploma in Business Management from Plymouth Polytechnic and started his civilian life working in Birmingham. He set up his own company in computer based training and stayed in that line of business until retirement in 1997, when he and Veryan moved to Cornwall.

John loved life in Lezant and joined the Parish Council, becoming Chairman in 2007 until he retired in 2011. He and Veryan ran a holiday cottage and through this he became involved in what was then a fairly new association, Tamar Valley Tourism Association (TAVATA), which connected all the different providers for the tourist industry in the Tamar Valley. He was Secretary of this organisation for several years and then became Chairman for some time. He also became Chairman of the South East Conservative Association, overseeing two elections. He loved meeting people and being involved in village life. He had a lifelong love of trees and the countryside. He and Veryan owned a wood near Horrabridge and he spent many happy hours cutting and sorting timber and managing the trees. Sadly he developed Parkinson's disease in his late 60s but didn't let that detract from his enjoyment of life, playing tennis until his mid 70's. In 2018 he and Veryan made the hard decision to leave St Lawrence and move to be nearer their children. They moved to Hampshire, where in late 2022 John was admitted to a care home where he died peacefully in June 2024.

LEZANT HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY'S ANNUAL SHOW

The Committee would like to thank everyone who entered or visited the show this year—it was a fantastic day. With more entries than the previous year, it was great to see some of the new members of the parish entering for the first time. During the afternoon we were entertained by Launceston Town Band who helped to brighten up a rather grey day. Thankfully the rain stayed away until the very end of the afternoon. The marquee was a picture of colour from the brightly decorated shields that the children had made to the beautiful colours of garden flowers and floral displays. We are very thankful to Mrs Mead, head of Trekenner School for opening the show and later presenting the cups and prizes. Throughout the afternoon children enjoyed a magic show from Zig Zag and we all loved seeing Peter Swann's alpacas who gracefully walked around greeting the visitors. Refreshments were provided by the WI in the tea tent and the BBQ returned, this time accompanied by a bar for the first time. We would like to thank all the volunteers who helped set up and take down the show, without whom it would be an impossible job. Please save the date for next year's show which will be on Saturday 9th August where we will also be celebrating the 100th anniversary of Lezant WI. Keep an eye on the magazine over the winter months as we will release the photography and handicraft themes to aid your preparation.

LEZANT WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

At our September meeting, we had a lovely a most interesting talk by Peter Perkins and Andy Rogers from the Cornwall Seal Sanctuary. They told us about how the charity was set up 25 years ago in order to help the public understand the life of Grey Seals.

The seals mate and have one pup a year. They are born white and they remain white for about 3 weeks. Grey seals have been in decline for some years and, as a result, the charity conducts surveys from boats 3 or 4 times a year. The increase in the number of storms is a major factor in the seals' decline because hundreds of pups get separated from their mothers and so die of starvation. Warmer seas have resulted in earlier pupping, which largely coincides with the holiday season, and people on the beaches not understanding the implications of human presence for the seals. This is a peak time for seals being brought to the sanctuary. More seals are getting into trouble and need the charity's help through rescue, rehabilitation and, for the lucky ones, release. The charity also does up to 400 surveys a year with the help of Exeter University. Seals normally live for between 25 - 40 years. One of the biggest dangers for seals is fishing nets. They get caught up round seals' necks. Worse are the flying wheels used by fishermen, which cause a painful death. Another major problem is the increase in the amount of toxic algae blooms which release acid which affects the seal's nervous system. An influx of Common Seals, which are much bigger, moving slowly westwards from Devon is also causing problems for their grey counterparts. The main food for seals is Sand Eels and Bass. All in all, it was a lovely talk with numerous photos and, at times, we were spellbound so a big thank you to Pete and Andy and well done the Seal Sanctuary.

TREBULLETT METHODIST CHURCH INVITE YOU TO MAKE AN ANGEL

Trebulet Methodist Church is celebrating Advent this year by holding an Angel Festival and we would love you or your group to take part. The exhibition will be held in Trebulet Chapel in the first week of Advent from Thursday 5th December to Sunday 8th December inclusive. As well as all the angels made by groups and individuals, the festival will include workshops, music and, of course, refreshments.

We would love you and/or your group to take part and make an angel - any medium or any size and of any material. Pictures, paintings, embroidery, flowers, patchwork, cane work, knitting, crochet, wire, wood, straw - whatever inspires you. Of course all the angels will be returned to you at the end of the Festival.

Our Charity Coffee Morning for St Petroc's will be held on Saturday 7th December in Trebulet Hall, so there will be tea and coffee and mince pies available that morning.

More details to follow next month, so watch this space but PLEASE SAVE THE DATE!

TREBULLETT METHODIST CHURCH

Our Summer Sunday Lunch on the 8th September was a huge success. Nearly 70 people came to Trebulet Hall and enjoyed a delicious lunch of cold ham and beef, new potatoes and various home-made salads. This was followed by a great array of magnificent home-made desserts – the only problem here was choosing which to have! Cheese and biscuits and tea and coffee were available if you had room to eat more! The room was filled with the wonderful noise of people greeting friends and chatting. It was a real community event and many have remarked on the wonderful atmosphere in the Hall that day.

Now summer is over (and when was that?) we look forward to our autumn events, the first of which is our Harvest Festival on Sunday 6th October when we will welcome David Ley to lead our morning service. This will be followed by a Bring and Share Lunch

We will be holding our usual monthly coffee morning on Wednesday 2nd October and look forward to seeing you there. Coffee and tea and biscuits and usually a cake are available together with good company. We are encouraged by some new faces joining us - you are all very welcome to come along.

The Autumn Lecture organized by Neil and Ruth Burden makes a very welcome return this month. See page 23. These have always been well attended and of great interest so please save the date.

Planning for our Christmas arrangements including our Carol Service and Carols on the Green is well in hand including something new – An Angel Festival for Advent. See page 23.

Apple filled Almond cake with a Cinnamon topping

(handy recipe with all the apples available this month. I have made this and can recommend)

7 inch spring form cake tin, buttered and lined.

Pre heat your fan oven to 160C

4 oz SR flour

2 oz soft light brown sugar

2 oz ground almonds

3 oz butter

1 small egg, beaten

a teaspoonful or so of lemon juice

a few drops of almonds extract

In a small mixing bowl, mix together the flour, sugar and 1oz of the ground almonds then rub in the butter until it resembles breadcrumbs. Add the beaten egg and lemon juice and bring together. Tip into your prepared tin then sprinkle over the rest of the ground almonds.

1 lb of cooking apples,

3 oz soft light brown sugar

1 teaspoonful lemon juice

Note: I started off with a tad over 1lb of apples but by the time I had peeled and cored was left with 13 oz.

Peel and core the apples, then cut into slices. Place in a bowl, then toss with the sugar and lemon juice. Now tip the apples over the almonds mix.

2 oz SR Flour

5 oz soft dark brown sugar

1 teaspoonful ground cinnamon

2 oz butter

In a small bowl, mix together the flour, sugar and spice. Lightly rub in the butter and tip over the apples.

Bake for around 1 hour 15 mins, but turn down and cover if browning too much.

Leave the cake in the tin to cool, then sprinkle over some icing sugar to serve if you wish.

(This is delicious either as a dessert or as a cake)

Treburley Social Club Joins 'Warm Welcome Spaces' Initiative

Treburley Social Club is delighted to announce that it has become part of the 'Warm Welcome Spaces' initiative, aimed at bringing people together in a friendly and supportive environment. Starting from the first week of November, the club will open its doors every Monday morning from 9am until midday, offering free tea and coffee.

Everyone in the community is invited to pop in, enjoy a hot drink, and take the opportunity to connect with neighbours. It's a wonderful chance to make new friends, share stories, and help reduce feelings of loneliness, bringing a bit of human warmth to our village.

Angela and Ian Morrison will be hosting these sessions, ensuring a warm and friendly atmosphere for all. Whether you're looking for a chat or simply want to relax with a cuppa, you'll find a welcoming space here.

Keep an eye on the parish notice boards for more updates. If you'd like to stay informed, you can also email treburley@outlook.com to sign up for our monthly newsletter.

We look forward to welcoming you!

About the Warm Welcome Campaign

The Warm Welcome campaign is led by a coalition of over 50 charitable organisations who joined together in response to the worst cost of living crisis in 70 years to provide emergency support to communities struggling to pay for rising food costs and to heat their homes. The Warm Welcome campaign is delivered by Good Faith Partnership in collaboration with partners and the Warm Welcome Spaces. The Warm Welcome campaign exists to turn poverty and isolation into warmth and welcome through the power of local Spaces made by and for the community. The Warm Welcome Campaign is building a movement for a fairer and friendlier society by supporting warm and welcoming spaces in every community in the UK. We want to ensure everyone has an open invitation to a warm and welcoming space so they can connect with others, get the support they need and feel part of their local community. By working together, Warm Welcome will ensure everyone has somewhere warm and friendly to go, so no one ever has to get through winter alone. www.warmwelcome.uk
