This issue is a special one. Because the Magazine was fortunate enough to secure a grant from Ruth Burden's Community Fund towards our printing costs, we were able to publish a special 40 page edition to commemorate the WI's Centenary and, again, this issue has 40 pages to illustrate and report on our wonderful Lezant Horticultural Show that was held on the second Saturday in August. We have some excellent photos that will remind us of what a good afternoon it was. All the photos of children in the Show report are published with the permission of their parents. If you missed it, then please save the date for next year: Saturday 8th August 2026. .

Autumn has definitely arrived.! Temperatures have fallen, we have had more rain (much welcomed by our local farmers) and several windy days too. You will see from the rainfall figures on page 11 how dry our summer has been compared with last year and we have been able to enjoy the sunshine. Before we moved from London to Treburley in October 1992, I hated autumn because the leaves fell and created a slippery mess on the pavements, not to mention delayed trains due to the ubiquitous leaves on the line! However, I now love the autumn colours when the various shades of red and gold light up what heralds the darker days of winter.

Always part of the autumn is Harvest Festival and both St Briochus and Trebullett Methodist Church will hold their annual Harvest Festival Services. Everyone is very welcome to attend either service—just come along. Trebullett 's service will be led by their new minister, Revd Oseias Da Silva, and there will be a Bring and Share Lunch following the morning service.

Another event not to be missed is Lezant WI's Craft and Produce Fair at Trebullett Hall on Saturday 25th October (see page 14). The last such WI Fair was very good and the items for sale are first class. We wouldn't expect anything less from the talented ladies of Lezant W.I.!

We welcome our new readers and hope you enjoy this issue. JILL

A Wonderful Afternoon at the Lezant Horticultural Show

What a fantastic afternoon it was for this year's Lezant Horticultural Show on 9th August. The weather was kind and it was heartwarming to see friends old and new enjoying the day together.

With music provided by Launceston Town Band, children were kept happily entertained by the Pop-Up Play Village, while the WI tea tent, bar and BBQ ensured everyone was well fed and watered throughout the day.

Inside the marquee, it was a joy to see so many entries this year — a real testament to the community's creativity and enthusiasm. We were especially delighted to welcome many new members of the community who entered for the first time. Marking their centenary year, the WI had the honour of opening the show and later presented cups and rosettes to the proud prize winners.

The Show Committee would like to extend heartfelt thanks to everyone who helped during the week leading up to the event and after — from setting up to clearing away — and of course to all who came on the day and made the occasion so special.

Thanks to Lucy Garland, Jo Burt, John Davies, Linda Watkins and the Pop Up Play Village for the wonderful photos.

THE LATE WESLEY COLWILL

Wesley Colwill was born at Withnoe Farm in 1928 and was a well known resident of Lezant Parish for many years. He was a keen photographer, poet and author. He moved to Treburley during the war years and lived at Cresta Park until 1997 when he moved just a few miles away. He died on 30th July 2025 aged 97. This is a poem he included in a book that he gave me in 2010.

TIMELESS WORLD

Written by the late Wesley Colwill in October 1996 after he visited Trekenner Mill Bridge near Treburley.

There's music in the woodland, blue sky of summer time, leaves turn and lift as breezes pass, the falling water's chime

Tall purple swaying floppy docks beside the grassy tracks, as nature beckons seeds to grow in moisture laden cracks.

Here cattle graze the river banks, drink from the sparkling rill, a heron calls, shrill mournful sound re-echoing in the hill

Then climb a road hewn from the shelf, where oak and holly grow, in contemplation rest awhile, a timeless world below.

NATURE NOTES - THE EGG AND THE NAIL VARNISH

Many years ago when we first started conservation breeding, we chose barn owls as our first venture. We had acquired a male in the winter from a serious breeder and in the spring we acquired a young female. Males have absolutely white breasts, females have tiny caramel rosettes set in their white breast. We introduced them, saw they got on and left them for several weeks to ensure a peaceful existence even if it was in captivity. After about 8 weeks, I quietly looked into the nest box and the female was sitting comfortably on several eggs. We had no idea how long she had been sitting. We left it another 3 weeks before looking again. We really had no idea how long she sat due to our leave and save methods. Ultimately, I felt that the eggs had been in the nest longer than the 28 or 29 or 30 days, but was not confident on detail. I decided to take the dirtiest egg from the nest. The female ignored me completely. I had decided to crack the egg on rocks on the side of the Lowley Brook so it could be discarded as food if, as I expected, it was addled. Suddenly, having put a nasty crack in the shell, I heard tiny cheeping inside.

I explained what had happened to my wife and asked her to find some nail varnish while I went to my office to find some old-fashioned typists snowpake. She returned with quite the most outrageous cherry red varnish. I painted the egg to seal it. I then disguised the varnish on the shell with less obvious snowpake.

I put the egg back in the nest. 3 days later a reddish white eggshell appeared in the nest before it was discarded and quite the most beautiful tiny barn owl. She grew up to be a favourite and a wonderful breeder and mother.

N.B. Owls in captivity need to be licenced by an A10 Certificate, registered with DE-FRA. They are never pets.

Lezant Women's Institute

Being intrigued by the stories of "The Beast of Bodmin Moor", Lezant WI invited Mark Camp to give a talk about the Myths and Tales of the Moor. Our President, Diana Anderson, welcomed Mark. He illustrated the main areas of interest with stunning photos, highlighting such places as The Hurlers, Trethevy Quoit, Warleggan, Crowpound, Goonzion and the 2 Ogham Stones at Lewannick. The well-known Cheesewring had a fascinating tale that at midnight on a starry night the very heavy stone on the top is supposed to move around completely. He talked of the Rillaton Barrow and the amazingly beautiful Rillaton Gold Cup, now in the British Museum in London. Then on to the many connections with Kings and Saints in the local Churches, mentioning especially St Neot Church with its very early stained glass, the Cornish tors, abandoned farmsteads and Dozmary Pool and, of course, the famous Jamaica Inn. The Beast of Bodmin Moor? Mark has never seen it. Still a mystery. Keep looking! Joy Hancock thanked him for his fascinating talk.

Our next meeting will be on Wednesday 8th October at 2pm in Trebulet Hall, when Dr Lesley Trotter will be giving us a talk on "Notable Women in Cornish History". Guests are very welcome to attend. Our guest fee is £4 to include light refreshments.

This year we are holding a Craft and Produce Fair on Saturday 25th October from 10.30 to 12.30. There will be craft items, including Christmas decorations and stocking fillers plus cakes, bread, jams and preserves for sale, as well as coffee and cakes to enjoy. This will be the final opportunity to enter our "Name the Teddy Bear" draw in aid of the Cornwall Air Ambulance. The draw will take place at 12.15.

If you think you might be interested in joining us, please contact Cynthia on 01579 370182. We offer 2 meetings free of charge and there is no obligation to join. All our meetings are held on the 2nd Wednesday of the month at 2pm at Trebulet Hall.

TREBULLETT METHODIST CHURCH

Trebulet's Sunday Lunch on the 14th September was a resounding success with about 65 people attending to appreciate cold meats with various home-made salads plus delicious desserts and cheese and biscuits with tea or coffee to finish. The hall was full of friendly chatter and laughter as we enjoyed the wonderful lunch. We were pleased that our new Minister, Revd Oseias da Silva and his wife, Jane, could join us and we were happy that they enjoyed the lunch as much as we did. Our next event is our Harvest Festival on Sunday 12th October. The morning service will be led by Revd Oseias and everyone is very welcome to join us to sing traditional harvest hymns and to listen to the message from Revd Oseias. The service will be followed by a bring and share lunch and we look forward to welcoming you to that, whether or not you can attend the service. Just bring a plate of food and yourself (or just yourself)! You will be very welcome.

Weekly Bible Study sessions will start again from 7th October at Trebulet Hall at 2.15pm. Everyone from the Parish is welcome to join us. Each session will be led by Revd Oseias.

Our monthly coffee morning for October will be on Wednesday 1st October at Trebulet Hall from 10.30am to 12 noon. These coffee mornings continue to be an occasion of friendly chat and companionship as we enjoy tea and coffee and cake. If you haven't been before or if you are new to the parish and would like to meet new friends, then please come along and join us, you will be very welcome. There is usually cake!

Our annual Coffee Morning for the Cornish charity, St Petroc's, will be on Saturday 1st November at Trebulet Hall from 10.30am to 12 noon. Please join us in supporting this amazing charity that does so much for the homeless in Cornwall. As well as tea and coffee, there will also be mince pies!

CANINE CAPERS IN LEZANT!

On a bright, sunny day in July there was a gathering of several local dogs and their responsible owners in Michael and Jackie Warren's field at Springfield, Lezant.

Spokesdog, Stanley Warren, said " My two brothers Monty and Albie and I had some of our mates over for a get-together and run around our field. We had a great time with Otto, Bert, Bella and Millie. Some of the neighbours came too with their grandchildren.

If you would like to come next time, please give my Mummy (Jackie) a call on 07940 527949 and she will let you know when it's happening!

An unusual harvest! This is growing in Ann and Mike Foster's greenhouse between tomato plants!

Please check the magazine for any updates or contact the clerk. To take advantage of the scheme the taxi must be pre-booked through Launceston Taxis on 07340 813434. The taxi driver will have a form that he will complete. You sign the form and pay the reduced rate to the driver. LEZANT PARISH ARCHIVE GROUP

Lezant Parish Archive Group organised a visit to Kresen Kernow on 11th September when seven of us enjoyed a really interesting afternoon. Literally meaning Cornwall Centre, Kresen Kernow is situated on the site of the old Redruth Brewery which has been sympathetically restored to house the Cornwall Archive.

The visit took us to public areas as well as behind the scenes and in the conservation laboratory we saw the tools of the trade and heard some of the amazing stories of seemingly random donations linking up to make up important connections. We were also able to go into the strong rooms where there are 14 miles of shelving.

The icing on the cake was to be able to view seven documents that we pre-requested which will add to individual and Parish records. Our thanks to Nigel Jonas for organising the visit and to Tamsin Mallett, Collections and Development Manager at Kresen Kernow, who was our guide for the day. Tamsin gave us a most interesting introduction to the archive building and its history and we learned that the Cornish for Archive is Argh, something I often feel like saying!

For anyone interested in using the archive, it is free, is a beautiful building and has a lovely cafe. It is nothing like the archives of old, being light and airy and definitely not musty. The website is <https://kresenkernow.org> where there also an online search facility.
